MARC HENRY ADAM

I am a reflective person and committed to projects that I am passionate about. My reliability and creative thinking make me an asset to any team, and I continuously develop my knowledge and technical expertise. I love working in a collaborative, open, and feedback-rich work environment.
My ultimate goal is to lead exciting data projects as a full-stack data engineer – and to be the link between highly complex structures and multi-dependencies.
